Grand Prix Racers Portraits of Speed

List $69.95 (SAE-A Member $62.96)

The heroes of Grand Prix racing--Fangio, Jim Clark, Phil Hill, Bruce McLaren, Jackie Stewart, Mario Andretti, Nigel Mansell, and Michael Schumacher, to name but a few--are familiar to F1 fans. But would their faces and feats be so well known if not for the extraordinary efforts of the photographers who have captured their images in legendary fashion? This book gives readers a look at 72 of Grand Prix racing's top drivers by way of its top photographers, the father and son team of Bernard and Paul-Henri Cahier. These incomparable photographs comprise intimate portraits of seventy-two of the sports greatest drivers from the 1950s through today.

Beautifully printed in rich black and white, the pictures treat readers to an encounter with the legendary Grand Prix racers that is at once remarkably fresh and historically rich.

Originally published in 2003 and now revised for 2008, this book identifies every car and driver that has competed in any World Championship Grand Prix from 1950 to 2007. In spite of what it says on the back cover, F1 did not start in 1950, but the World Championship did and this is the most comprehensive photographic record of the cars and drivers that has ever been attempted. It is an amazing book and every F1 fan must have this on the bookshelf.
